Below is a list of music we perform regularly for wedding ceremonies. Most of these songs can be performed in a variety of ways: solo piano or guitar, flute/guitar duo, guitar/piano, voice/guitar, etc. If there is a song you like that's not listed, we will do our best to locate it and add it to our repertoire if we're given enough notice. Songs marked with a P are appropriate choices for the processional; songs marked with an R are appropriate for the recessional. If you would like to hear samples of songs that we don't have recorded, there are many classical music and wedding music resources on the internet where you can listen to music. An excellent website with samples is www.wedalert.com. Another good resource is www.classicalarchives.com — this website has MIDI (electronic music) files of thousands of pieces of classical music listed by composer. It's great for finding out-of-the-ordinary classical pieces, if you're looking for something unique. And, of course, mp3 download sites such as www.iTunes.com and www.Amazon.com/mp3 have short samples of just about everything.
